Section 5-711	Enforcement by private persons.
Section 5-712	Interference, coercion, or intimidation.
Section 5-713	Prevention of intimidation in fair housing cases.

SECTION 5-701      DEFINITIONS.

For purposes of this chapter:

1. "Discriminatory housing practice" means an act that is unlawful under Sections 5-703, 5-704, and 5-705;
2. "Dwelling" means any building, structure, or portion thereof which is occupied as, or designed or intended for occupancy as, a residence by one or more families, and any vacant land which is offered for sale or lease for the construction or location thereon of any such building, structure, or portion thereof;
3. "Family" includes a single individual;
4. "Person" means one or more individuals, corporations, partnerships, associations, labor organizations, legal representatives, mutual companies, joint-stock companies, trusts, unincorporated organizations, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, receivers, and fiduciaries; and
5. "To rent" means to lease, to sublease, to let and otherwise to grant for a consideration the right to occupy premises owned by the occupant.

(Added 1991)

SECTION 5-702      UNLAWFUL PRACTICE.

Subject to the provisions of paragraph 2 and Section 5-706, the prohibitions against discrimination in the sale or rental of housing set forth in Section 5-702 shall apply to:

1. All dwellings except as exempted by paragraph 2;
2. Nothing in Section 5-703 shall apply to:

a. Any single-family house sold or rented by an owner; provided that such private individual owner does not own more than three (3) such single-family houses at any one time; provided further, that in the case of the sale of any such single-family house by a private individual owner not residing in such house at the time of such sale or who was not the most recent resident of such house prior to such sale, the exemption granted by this subsection shall apply only with respect to one such sale within any twenty-four (24) month period; provided further, that such bona fide private individual owner does not own any interest in, nor is there owned or reserved on his behalf, under any express or voluntary agreement, title to or any right to all or a portion of the proceeds from the sale or rental of more than three (3) such single-family houses at any one time; provided further, that the sale or rental of any such single-family house shall be excepted from the application of this chapter only if such house is sold or rented:

(1) Without the use in any manner of the sales or rental facilities or the sale or the rental services of any real estate broker, agent or salesman, or of such facilities or services of any person in the business of selling or renting dwellings, or of any employee or agent of any such facilities or services or of any person in the business of selling or renting dwellings, or of any employee agent of any such broker, agent, salesman, or person; and

(2) Without the publication, posting or mailing, after notice of any advertisement or written notice of any advertisement or written notice in violation of Section 5-703, but nothing in this provision shall prohibit the use of attorneys, escrow agents, abstractors, title companies, and other such professional assistance as necessary to perfect or transfer the title; or

b. Rooms or units in dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than four (4) families living independently of each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of such living quarters as his residence;

3. For the purposes of paragraph 2 of this section, a person shall be deemed to be in the business of selling or renting dwellings if:

- a. He has, within the preceding twelve (12) months, participated as principal in three (3) or more transactions involving the sale or rental of any dwelling or any interest therein;
- b. He has, within the preceding twelve (12) months, participated as an agent, other than in the sale of his own personal residence in providing sales or rental facilities or sales or rental services in two (2) or more transactions involving the sale or rental of any dwelling or any interest therein; or
- c. He is the owner of any dwelling designed or intended for occupancy by, or occupied by, five (5) or more families. (Added 1991)

SECTION 5-703      DISCRIMINATION IN THE SALE OR RENTAL OF HOUSING.

Except as specifically exempted within this code, it shall be unlawful and an offense:

1. To refuse to sell or rent after the making of a bona fide offer, or to refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of, or otherwise make unavailable or deny, a dwelling to any person because of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, familial status, or handicap;

2. To discriminate against any person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of sale or rental of a dwelling, or in the provision of services or facilities in connection therewith, because of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, familial status, or handicap;

3. To make, print, or publish, or cause to be made, printed, or published any notice, statement, or advertisement, with respect to the sale or rental of a dwelling that indicates any preference, limitation, or discrimination based on race, sex, color, religion, national origin, familial status, or handicap or an intention to make any such preference, limitation, or discrimination;

4. To represent to any person because of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, familial status, or handicap that any dwelling is not available for inspection, sale, or rental when such dwelling is, in fact, available;

5. For profit, to induce or attempt to induce any person to sell or rent any dwelling by representations regarding the entry or prospective entry into the neighborhood of a person or persons of a particular race, sex, color, religion, national origin, familial status, or handicap. (Added 1991)

SECTION 5-704      DISCRIMINATION IN THE FINANCING OF HOUSING.

It shall be unlawful for any bank, savings and loan association, insurance company or other corporation, association, firm or enterprise whose business consists in whole or in part in the making of commercial real estate loans, to deny a loan or other financial assistance to a person applying therefore for the purpose of purchasing, constructing, improving, repairing, or maintaining a dwelling, or to discriminate against him in the fixing of the amount, interest rate, duration, or other terms or conditions of such loan or other financial assistance, because of the race, sex, color, religion, national origin, familial status, or handicap:

1. Of such person or of any person associated with him in connection with such loan or other financial assistance or the purposes of such loan or other financial assistance; or

2. Of the present or prospective owners, lessees, tenants, or occupants of the dwelling or dwellings in relation to which such loan or other financial assistance is to be made or given; provided, that nothing contained in this section shall impair the scope or effectiveness of the exception contained in Section 5-702. (Added 1991)

SECTION 5-705      DISCRIMINATION IN THE PROVISION OF BROKERAGE SERVICES.

It shall be unlawful to deny any person access to or membership or participation in any multiple-listing service, rental or facility relating to the business of selling or renting dwellings, or to discriminate against him in the terms or conditions of such access, membership, or participation, on account of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, familial status, or handicap. (Added 1991)

SECTION 5-706      EXEMPTION.

Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a religious organization, association, or society, nor any non-profit institution or organization operated, supervised or controlled by or in conjunction with a religious organization, association, or society, from limiting the sale, rental or occupancy of dwellings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose to persons of the same religion, or from giving preference to such persons, unless membership in such religion is restricted on account of race, sex, color, national origin, familial status, or handicap. Nor shall anything in this chapter prohibit a private club not in fact open to the public, which as an incident to its primary purpose or purposes provides lodgings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose, from limiting the rental or occupancy of such lodgings to its members or from giving preference to its members. (Added 1991)

SECTION 5-707      ADMINISTRATION.

A.      The authority and responsibility for administering this chapter shall be in the chief executive officer of the town.

B.      The chief executive officer may delegate any of these functions, duties, and powers to employees of the town or to boards of such employees, including functions, duties, and powers with respect to investigating, conciliating, hearing, determining, ordering, certifying, reporting or otherwise acting as to any work, business, or matter under this chapter. The chief executive officer shall, by rule, prescribe such rights of appeal from the decisions of his hearing examiners to other hearing examiners or to other officers in the town, to boards of officers or to himself, ~) as shall be appropriate and in accordance with law.

C.      All executive departments and agencies shall administer their programs and activities relating to housing and urban development in a manner affirmatively to further the purposes of this chapter and shall cooperate with the chief executive officer to further such purposes. (Added 1991)

SECTION 5-708      EDUCATION AND CONCILIATION.

Immediately after the enactment of this chapter, the chief executive officer shall commence such educational and conciliatory activities as will further the purposes of this chapter. He shall call conferences of persons in the housing industry and other interested parties to acquaint them with the provisions of this chapter and his suggested means of implementing it, and shall endeavor with their advice to work out programs of voluntary compliance and of enforcement. (Added 1991)

SECTION 5-709      ENFORCEMENT.

A.      Any person who claims to have been injured by a discriminatory housing practice or who believes that he will be irrevocably injured by a discriminatory housing practice that is about to occur (hereafter "person aggrieved") may file a complaint with the chief executive officer. Complaints shall be in writing and shall contain such information and be in such form as the chief executive officer requires. Upon receipt of such a complaint, the chief executive officer shall furnish a copy of the same to the person or persons who allegedly committed or are about to commit the alleged discriminatory housing practice. Within thirty (30) days after receiving a complaint, or within thirty (30) days after the expiration of arty period of reference under building Regulations and Codes Subsection C, the chief executive officer shall investigate the complaint and give notice in writing to the person aggrieved whether be intends to resolve it. If the chief executive officer decides to resolve the complaints, he shall proceed to try to eliminate or correct the alleged discriminatory housing practice by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion. Nothing said or done in the course of such informal endeavors may be made public or used as evidence in a subsequent proceeding under this chapter without the written consent of the persons concerned. Any employee of the chief executive officer who shall make public any information in violation of this provision shall be (upon conviction) fined not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or imprisoned nor more than thirty (30) days.

B. A complaint under Subsection A of this section shall be filed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the alleged discriminatory housing practice occurred. Complaints shall be in writing and shall state the facts upon which the allegations of a discriminatory housing practice are based. Complaints may be reasonably and fairly amended at any time. A respondent may file an answer to the complaint against him and with the leave of the chief executive officer, which shall be granted whenever it would be reasonable and fair to do so, may amend his answer at any time. Both complaints and answers shall be verified.

C. If, within thirty (30) days after a complaint is filed, with the chief executive officer, the chief executive officer has been unable to obtain voluntary compliance with this chapter, the person aggrieved may, within thirty (30) days thereafter, file a complaint with the secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development. The chief executive officer will assist in this filing.

D. If the chief executive officer has been unable to obtain voluntary compliance within thirty (30) days of the complaint, the person aggrieved may, within thirty (30) days hereafter, commence a civil action in any appropriate district court, against the respondent names in the complaint, to enforce the rights granted or protected by this chapter, insofar as such rights relate to the subject of the complaint. If the court finds that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, the court may enjoin the respondent from engaging in such practice or order such affirmative action as may be appropriate.

E. In any proceeding brought pursuant to this section, the burden of proof shall be on the complainant.

F. Whenever an action filed by an individual shall come to trial, the chief executive officer shall immediately terminate all efforts to obtain voluntary compliance.
(Added 1991)

A In conducting an investigation the chief executive officer shall have access, at all reasonable times, to premises, records, documents, individuals, and other evidence or possible sources of evidence and may examine, record, and copy such materials and take and record the testimony or statements of such persons as are reasonably necessary for the furtherance of the investigation, provided that the chief executive officer first complies with the provisions of the Fourth Amendment relating to unreasonable searches and seizures. The chief executive officer may issue subpoena to compel his access to or the production of such materials, or the appearance of Such persons, and may issue interrogatories to a respondent, to the same extent and subject to the same limitations as would apply if the subpoenas or interrogatories were issued or served in aid of a civil action in the United States District Court for the district in which the investigation is taking place. The chief executive officer may administer oaths.

B. Upon written application to the chief executive officer, a respondent shall be entitled to the issuance of a reasonable number of subpoenas by and in the name of the chief executive officer to the same extent and subject to the same limitations as subpoenas issued at the request of a respondent shall show on their face the name and address of such respondent and shall state that they were issued at his request.

C. Witnesses summoned by subpoena of the chief executive officer shall be entitled to the same witness and mileage fees as are witnesses in proceedings in United States District Courts. Fees payable to a witness summoned by a subpoena issued at the request of a respondent shall be paid by him.

D. Within five (5) days after service of a subpoena upon any person, such person may petition the chief executive officer to revoke or modify the subpoena. The chief executive officer shall grant the petition if it finds that the subpoena requires appearance or attendance at an unreasonable time or place, that it requires production of evidence which does not relate to any matter under investigation, that it does not describe with sufficient particularity the evidence to be produced, that compliance would be unduly onerous, or for other good reason.

E. In case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena, the chief executive officer or other person at whose request it was issued may petition for its enforcement in the municipal or state court for the district in which the person to whom the subpoena was addressed resides, was served, or transacts business.

F. Any person who willfully fails or neglects to attend and testify or to answer any lawful inquiry or to produce records, documents, or other evidence, if in his power to do so, in obedience to the subpoena or lawful order of the chief executive officer shall be punished as provided in Section 1-108 of this code. Any person who, with intent thereby to mislead the chief executive officer:

1. Shall make or cause to be, made any false entry or statement of fact in any report, account, record, or other document submitted to the chief executive officer pursuant to the subpoena or other order;

2. Shall willfully neglect or fail to make or cause to be made full, true, and correct entries in such reports, accounts, records, or other documents; or

3. Shall willfully mutilate, alter, or by any other means falsify any documentary evidence, shall be punished as provided in Section 1-108 of this code.

G. The town attorney shall conduct all litigation in which the chief executive officer participates as a party or as amicus curiae pursuant to this chapter. (Added 1991)

SECTION 5-711      ENFORCEMENT BY PRIVATE PERSONS.

A. The rights granted by Sections 5-702 through 5-705 may be enforced by civil actions in state or local courts of general jurisdiction. A civil action shall be commenced within one hundred eighty (180) days after the alleged discriminatory housing practice occurred. Provided however, that the court shall continue such civil case brought pursuant to this section or Section 7-509 from time to time before bringing it to trial if the court believes that the conciliation efforts of the, chief executive officer are likely to result in satisfactory settlement of the discriminatory housing practice complained of in the complaint made to the chief executive officer and which practice forms the basis of the action in court: and provided, however, that any sale, encumbrance, or rental consummated prior to the issuance of any court order issued under the authority of this chapter, and involving a bona fide purchaser, encumbrance, or tenant without actual notice of the existent of the filing of a complaint or civil action under the provisions of this chapter shall not be affected

B. The court may grant as relief, as it deems appropriate, any permanent or temporary injunction, temporary restraining order, or other order, and may award to the plaintiff actual damages and not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) punitive damages, together with court costs and reasonable attorneys fees in the case of a prevailing plaintiff. Provided, that the plaintiff in the opinion of the court is not financially able to assume the attorney's fees. (Added 1991)

SECTION 5-712      INTERFERENCE, COERCION, OR INTIMIDATION.

It shall be unlawful and an offense to coerce, intimidate, threaten, or interfere with any person in the exercise or enjoyment of, or on account of their having exercised or enjoyed, or on account of their having aided or encouraged any other person in the exercise or enjoyment of any right granted or protected by Sections 5-702 through 5-705. This section may be enforced by appropriate civil action. (Added 1991)

SECTION 5-713

PREVENTION OF INTIMIDATION IN FAIR HOUSING CASES.

Whoever, whether or not acting under color of law, by force or threat of force, willfully injures, intimidates or interferes with, or attempts to injure, intimidate or interfere with:

1. Any person because of race, color, religion, national origin, familial status, or handicap and because he is or has been selling, purchasing, renting, financing, occupying, or contracting or negotiating for the sale, purchase, rental, financing or occupation of any dwelling, or applying for or participating in any service, organization, or facility relating to the business of selling or renting dwellings;

2. Any person because he is or has been, or in order to intimidate such person or any other person or any class of persons from:

- a. Participating, without discrimination on account of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, familial status, or handicap, in any of the activities, services, organizations or facilities described in paragraph 1; or
- b. Affording another person or class of persons an opportunity or protection so as to participate; or

3. Any citizen because he is or has been, or in order to discourage such citizen or any other citizen from lawfully aiding or encouraging other persons to participate, without discrimination on account of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, familial status, or handicap, in any of the activities, services, organizations or facilities described in paragraph 1 of Section 5-713, or participating lawfully in speech or peaceful assembly opposing any denial of the opportunity to so participate, shall be punished as provided in Section 1-108 of this code.

CHAPTER 8

MECHANICAL CODES

Section 5-801	Adoption of mechanical code.
Section 5-802	Registration, permits and fees.
Section 5-803	Mechanical: permits and inspections.
Section 5-804	Mechanical inspector; office created; duties

SECTION 5-801      ADOPTION OF MECHANICAL CODE.

A certain document, being marketed and designated as "The BOCA Basic Mechanical Code", the latest edition thereof, and any revisions or amendments thereto, as published by the Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., is hereby adopted as the mechanical code of the town for the control of buildings and structures as therein provided. Each and all of the regulations, provisions, penalties, conditions and terms of the BOCA Basic Mechanical Code are hereby referred to, adopted and made a part hereof, as if fully set out in this code, with additions, insertions and changes, if any, prescribed in this chapter.

SECTION 5-802      REGISTRATION, PERMITS AND FEES.

A. It is unlawful for any person to engage in the business, trade, or occupation of a mechanical contractor or mechanical journeyman in this Town unless he is registered with the Town and has a current and valid certificate of registration issued by the Town.

B. Only persons who have current and valid licenses as mechanical contractors or as mechanical journeymen issued by the State of Oklahoma as provided by the state mechanical license law may register with the Town.

C. Applicants for certificates of registration, after complying with the laws of the state and with the Town code, and after payment of the fee hereinafter specified, shall be registered by the Town Clerk. The registration shall expire at the end of the fiscal year, but may be renewed from year to year. The registration fee shall be set by the Town board. Mechanical contractors desiring to renew their registration shall furnish the same evidence of compliance with state licensing laws and the same bond is required as set forth by Town code. An applicant for mechanical contractor's registration shall also furnish bond in such sum and such conditions as set by the Town board.

D. A qualified person may re-register as a mechanical contractor or a mechanical journeyman, in the same manner as in the original instance, and upon the same conditions.

E. All mechanical contractors registrations not renewed within ninety (90) days after the date of expiration thereof shall be cancelled, and a new application for registration must be made and the fee for a new registration paid.

F. The fee for registration shall be as set by the Town board by motion or resolution.

G. The Town board, upon at least ten (10) days' notice and adequate opportunity for a public hearing, may revoke the town registration.

SECTION 5-803      MECHANICAL: PERMITS AND INSPECTIONS.

A. No mechanical work shall be undertaken without a permit from the town.

B. The application for such work must follow the adopted Town code.

C. The schedule of permit fees may be set forth by resolution or motion of the Town board. Such payment will be made upon application.

D. inspection of such work must conform to the guidelines set forth in the Town code.

SECTION 5-804      MECHANICAL INSPECTOR; OFFICE CREATED; DUTIES.

The office of inspector of mechanical equipment is hereby created and shall be filled and the duties of the office performed by some person appointed by the Town Board of Trustees. Such inspector shall make inspection and testing of all mechanical equipment installed within the town and shall have the right to deputize any person equally qualified to carry out the performance of this chapter. The testing of mechanical equipment shall be done by tests as the inspector shall deem necessary.
